

11. From December 9 to 15, 2010, participated in the 16th Asian Para Games Cultural and Artistic Exhibition in Guangzhou, demonstrating Shiwan ceramic sculpture production for leaders and athletes from various countries on-site.

12. From November 8 to 20, 2010, participated in the 16th Asian Games Cultural Arts and Crafts Exhibition in Guangzhou, and demonstrated Shiwan ceramic sculpture production on-site for leaders and athletes from various countries.

13. In 2009, "Fashion" was selected for Japan's "Romance of the Three Kingdoms—Symbiosis Exhibition of Contemporary Ceramic Art's New Generation from China, Japan, and Korea."

