Maria Geszler Garzuly

I a m w r i t i n g t o Y o u

I was looking for a form which can carry my written and painted messages as a picture: a simple shape – that looks like me – casts my shadow on the ground. So, my artwork became two and also three-dimensional at the same time. „I am writing to You ...” – so the love-letter from Tatiana to Onegin starts in the drama of Pushkin: I am writing, drawing to all of You, to the Unknown, a message for Everyone.
