

Open call for ceramic artists

To celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Associació Ceramistes de Catalunya, the organisation invites ceramic artists from all over the world to be part of the next edition of TerrArt magazine. A biannual publication of contemporary ceramics, unique in Spain.

To celebrate, we open the first international call to all artists who use ceramics as a tool of expression in a free style, wishing to meet artists who transmit new perspectives, with quality and who, ultimately, surprise us by being the main characters of the 70th edition of our magazine.

BASES OF THE CALL:

- Open Call to artists from all over the world who work with ceramics.
- The works presented must be made between 2020 and 2026, and be made up of at least 70% ceramic material.
- 10 artists will be selected to be part of the main report of issue no. 70 of TerrArt magazine. One of these artists will be selected to be part of the cover of issue no. 70.
- Participation is free.

What do the selected artists receive?

- A two page article in issue no. 70 of TerrArt magazine.
- A free annual subscription (issues no. 70 and no. 71) in print format.
- Visibility through publication on the website, social networks and newsletter of the Associació Ceramistes de Catalunya, being promoted among our audience of arts professionals interested in ceramics.
- Possibility of collaboration on articles in future issues of our magazine.

What do all participating artists receive?

- TerrArt magazine no. 70 in digital format.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

Send a maximum of 5 good quality images of your work, with a descriptive text of the work, a biography and a CV of the artist to the following email address: art@ceramistescat.org

Deadline for submitting applications: 31 October 2026.

The selected artists will be announced on 17 December 2026.

¡¡We want to meet you!!
