

ILONA ROMULE. Artist Profile.

Ilona Romule was born in Riga (Latvia) in artists' family and has worked in the field of Ceramics since graduation from Latvian Art Academy in 1985 (MFA in Ceramics).

Ilona works as a freelance artist at her studio in Riga and in International Ceramics Studio in Kecskemet (Hungary) and in China. Mostly working with high temperature porcelain.

During a 30 years career, Ilona has held 27 solo shows, over 50 International Juried Competitions, over 30 group exhibitions, winning 10 awards, including "Mino'95" Competition in Japan; 6th Taiwan Golden Ceramics Awards in 2000; Icheon World Ceramic Biennale in 2001 and 2003; "6th International Small Teapot Competition", GRAND PRIZE, Pomona Ceramics Museum, CA, USA (2014), GOLDEN Prize at the 1st World Ceramic Teapot Art Competition, Yixing, China (2019)

Ilona's works are housed in numerous International Collections of Ceramic Art including: International Ceramic Collection in ICS, Kecskemet, Hungary; Taipei County Ceramics Museum, Taiwan; Icheon World Ceramic Exposition Foundation, Korea; Riga's Design and Applied Art Museum, Latvia; Riga's Porcelain Museum, Latvia; The International Ceramics Museum, FLICAM, Fuping, China; Kennedy Museum of Art, Athens, Ohio, USA; Taoxichuan and JCI International Collections, Jingdezhen, China; Art Ichol Center, Maihar, India.

To date Ilona has given 55 presentations and lectures relating to her own practice and international experience she got traveling and taking part at International Symposia, Residences and Ceramic Conferences.

She has been leading Plaster mold making, Lithophane and China painting workshops at Universities and Art Centers in Latvia, Hungary, USA, China, Australia, Turkey, Israel, Taiwan, Bali, New Zealand, India.

Since 2001 Ilona Romule is a member of the International Academy of Ceramics (IAC), Geneva, Switzerland. Since 2016 – IAC Council Member.

www.ilonaromuleporcelain.com