Willy van Bussel (self trained) , 071251, has been making ceramics for 40 years, first making decorated handthrown domestic and one-off pieces in earthenware and stoneware. The crystalline glazes on porcelain bodies have been produced from 1990 - 2008.

In the current work you can see and feel that he is very much inspired and fascinated by the translucence of the highfired porcelain. The bowls and cylinders are thrown on a wheel and turned as thin as possible.

He is playing with the translucence and the simple contemporary decoration on these partly glazed or unglazed traditional forms.

He is also teaching ceramics at the Ceramics training institute SBB Gouda and you can also contact him for other ceramics related workshops.

□ Professional working member of the Dutch Ceramists Association.
