

Ceramics TECHNICAL

AUS$17.50 US$16 £10 NZ$25 CAN$23 Euro 17.50*

Workshops • Festivals • Woodfiring • Events
Printing Techniques • Residencies • Raku
Digital Imaging • Ready-Mades
Tiles • Books • Spiral Wedging

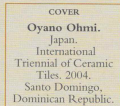

19

Ceramics TECHNICAL

CONTENTS

NO. 19, 2004

- 3 A Working Process. Elina Brandt-Hansen discusses her detailed patterning technique.
- 7 Whistling Up A Trojan Horse. Terry Davies writes on Michael Doolan's tableaux works.
- 10 Making Sense. Sebastian Blackie describes his wandering ceramic practice.
- 13 A Time Remembered. The ceramic art of Agustin de Andino as interpreted by Raúl Acero.
- 15 Helena Andersson's Woodfired Earthenware. Love Jonsson discusses this Swedish artist's ceramic work.
- 18 From Tableware to Stabware. Tineke van Gils describes her transformation from perfecting technique into content-based work.
- 21 The Clay Studio: Thirty Years of Excellence. Amy Sarner Williams and Jeff Guido report on this ceramic arts learning centre.
- 25 Bare Raku or Drawing with Smoke. Fabienne Gloria describes her ceramic techniques using an innovative raku process.
- 31 Jewel Creek. Tom Crawford claims he ain't no potter.
- 36 Tulla Eliason. Lars Elien writes about Tulla Eliason's work presented at Kunstnernes Hus.
- 38 Rufford Craft Centre. Peter Wilson reports on his residency program.
- 41 Adobe Art In Touch with the Earth. Christopher Garcia looks at the use of adobe by artists to create objects of permanence.
- 46 International Festival of Ceramics. Michel Gardelle reports on an annual event in France.
- 48 Pools of Thought. Howard Jevons comments on the environmental influence on his work from Wales.
- 50 Clay Modern at Gulgong. Karen Weiss writes about a conference she believes to be Australia's No. 1 ceramics event.
- 55 Clay Modern. Mark Wheat's first-hand experience of this International Ceramics Conference at Gulgong.
- 59 The Walker Tradition: A History of Consistency. Penny Smith discovers a tradition of service.
- 65 A Ceramic Festival in Taiwan. Anne Coroneos was Australia's representative at Taiwan's Ceramic Lantern Workshop.
- 71 Ready-Mades from Clay. Rayo Zommer discusses the complexity of Daniela Yanir-Richter's sculptures of simple household items.
- 73 Twice the Length from One End to the Middle. Euan Craig explains his spiral coiling and throwing techniques.
- 77 Denial is not a River in Egypt. Barbara Campbell-Allen was invited to Egypt as an advisor. She reports here.
- 84 Igneri Foundation: Pottery as Identity. Jeannette Miller finds life, survival and death portrayed in tiles.
- 88 Mural Production Using Digital Imaging. Pam Sinnott takes us through the details of this process.
- 90 Prehistoric Cooking Pots from Cyprus. Jenny Webb and David Frankel discuss the technical sophistication found in ancient cooking pots.
- 97 The Lucky Tableware Porcelain Division. Jude Matich writes about the work of Helen English and Andre Gault in the Philippines.
- 99 Katshya Tiles and Pottery. Sidika Sibel Serim discusses the effects of Western techniques on the production of Katshya tiles.
- 106 Joy is in the Air. Jane Calthorpe reviews 'Create' at Joy Ewart Gallery.
- 107 Traditional Pottery in Ghana. K. K. Broni has some suggestions for Ghana's ceramic crisis.

COVER

Oyano Ohmi.
Japan.
International
Triennial of Ceramic
Tiles, 2004.
Santo Domingo,
Dominican Republic.

Baltic Woodfired 2010

PROGRAM
Workshop at Cassius Clay

Workshops with our three invited artists:
Dale Huffman, USA
Priscilla Mouritzen, Denmark/South Africa
and Helena Andersson, Sweden

Saturday the 18th and Sunday the 19th of September 1-5pm
Cassius Clay, Vestre Strandvej 12, Balka, 3730 Nexø
Workshops will include demonstrations and slide lectures.

For more information
www.cassiusclay.dk

HELENA ANDERSSON

Studio
Sockerbuket 9, Vån 4
41451 Göteborg
Sweden

mail@helenaandersson.com
www.helenaanderson.com

