Clay, Trains and Glaze:
The Ceramic Art of Hsieh Chia-heng

陶土火車閃光釉
Hsieh Chia-heng's ceramic art is a love affair with the train. The artist's work is a tribute to the railway, a symbol of modernization and progress in Taiwan. He uses a combination of traditional ceramic techniques and modern glazing to create a sense of movement and light. The train is not just a mode of transport, but a symbol of hope and a vision of a better future. The artist's work is a testament to the power of art to capture the spirit of a time and a place.

Since first created by artist Hsieh Chia-heng in 1988, his work has been a tribute to the railway, a symbol of modernization and progress in Taiwan. He uses a combination of traditional ceramic techniques and modern glazing to create a sense of movement and light. The train is not just a mode of transport, but a symbol of hope and a vision of a better future. The artist's work is a testament to the power of art to capture the spirit of a time and a place.
