

On June 17, 2015, the China Italy Celadon and Tea Traditional Culture Exhibition hosted by Sun Wei opened at the headquarters of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO). Niu Dun, Permanent Ambassador of China to the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization, Mr. Pierfrancesco Sacco, Permanent Ambassador of Italy to the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization, Ms. Fernanda Guerrieri, Assistant Director General of FAO, Ms. Lin Yalian, Director of the Human Resources and Social Security Bureau of Ningbo City, Zhejiang Province, China, as well as nearly 100 representatives of artists and entrepreneurs from China and Italy, as well as permanent representatives of various countries to the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization, attended the opening ceremony.

Niu Dun said that both China and Italy are ancient civilizations with a long history, and have a large number of cultural heritage, including agricultural cultural heritage and traditional food culture. This exhibition utilizes the platform of FAO to promote agricultural cultural exchange between China and Italy, as well as FAO, through the joint creation of artists from both countries, and to gain more understanding and appreciation of Chinese culture.

Ambassador Pierfrancesco Sacco and Assistant Director General Fernanda Guerrieri respectively delivered speeches in agreement, believing that the event is of great significance in actively promoting exchanges and cooperation between China, Italy, and FAO in the field of agricultural culture.

