University of the Arts London, Camberwell College of Art, Ceramics B.A (Hons) 2000

Ceramist from Seoul, South Korea. She has her own ceramics studio in Seoul, teaches ceramics to other ceramists, and exhibits her work worldwide. Using multi layered color porcelain slip casting and cut to show color inside and make translucent. The technique is from old glass work to use on slip casting. I hope, the colors I used were shown me and your stories, experience, love and happiness.
