

Linda Lighton is a ceramic sculptor. She's had over 60 solo exhibitions and participated in over 170 group shows.

She is represented in national and international museums from the Nelson-Atkins, in Kansas City MO; to Switzerland, , China, , Korea, Hungary, Israel, Japan, Latvia, Lithuania, and Spain.

Lighton has traveled to residencies in, China Hungary, Israel, Japan, Latvia, Lithuania, Spain, Turkey.

Lighton is a member of the International Academy of Ceramics. She is the Founder/Director of the Lighton International Artist Exchange Program, sending over 176 artists to 63 countries.

Lighton has received: the Lifetime Achievement Award from the National Council for the Education of the Ceramic Arts; the Distinguished Alumni Award at Pembroke School; State of Missouri Artist Award and Award for Excellence in Visual Arts and Education from the Kansas City Art Institute.

lindalighton.com