BIOGRAPHY

Veronika Horlik lives and works in Montréal, Québec. Trained as a ceramist, she obtained a Master of Arts degree from McGill University and a Master of Fine Arts degree in Ceramics from the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design (NSCAD). She has participated in numerous exhibitions in Québec, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, Ontario, Alberta (Canada), Rome (Italy), and Longquan (China).

In addition to her exhibitions, she has been received as artist-in-residence on several occasions, including Medalta, AB, the centre SGAMIE, QC, C.R.E.T.A.Rome, Italy, and the Longquan Research Institute of Jingdezhen Ceramic University, China. She has been awarded prestigious prizes, such as the Canadian RBC Emerging Artist People's Choice Award for Ceramics in 2015. In addition to her practice, she shares her knowledge with future generations of Quebec creators: she has been co-founder and director of the Studio de céramique Alexandra in Montreal since 2000, where she mentors early-career ceramists. She is professor at John Abbott College in Ceramics and Sculpture, and at McGill University in Art Education Studio courses.
