

Giorgos Vavatsis

www.vavatsisceramics.wordpress.com

qpsclay62@gmail.com

Giorgos Vavatsis was born in Thessaloniki, Greece, in 1974. He studied Visual & Live Art in Gloucestershire University, in England from 1995 to 1998. In 2000, he returned at his hometown and he established his own workshop, where he still works. His ceramic works has been shown in several solo and group exhibitions in Greece and abroad. He participated in many ceramic symposiums around Europe and Asia. In 2012, he won the 1st prize in the 50th Panhellenic Ceramic Competition and in 2024 the 1st prize in the 1st Biennale of Contemporary Keramics, in Santorini, Greece. He teaches ceramics in various institutions and studios around Greece and regularly in his own studio too. In 2013, he established the ceramic production company, «Hakah Ceramics Design Production», specialized in stoneware table and drink wares. In 2017, he creates a project space named “6exi Contemporary Ceramics”, where national and international invited artists expose their work in Thessaloniki. He is a member of Chamber of Fine Arts of Greece since 2011, of Artaxis.com since 2018 and of International Academy of Ceramics (IAC) since 2021.