Resume of Wang Shengli

Name: Shengli Wang

Date of birth: April 28, 1960

Postal Address: Jilin University of Arts, Hongqi Road 2077, Chaoyang District,

Changchun City, China

Tel: （0086）13804336768

E-mail: zheyi1960@sina.com

Education:

1981-1985 Bachelor of Chinese Painting in Luxun College of Fine Arts

1998 Seminar of woodcut in Central Academy of Fine Arts

Working Experience:

2001 Established YiDan ceramics studio

Now Master Supervisor of ceramics, Design Dept,. Jilin University of the Arts
Visiting Professor, Art Dept.

Personal Works:

1998 The work of woodcut Story of Duoli was exhibited and collected in National Art Museum of China.

2009 Awarded golden prize in the First Changchun Art Exhibition for glaze work
Ice lantern.

2012 Awarded silver prize in 2012 Contemporary Pottery Exhibition for his Ceramic work Gone with the Wind.

2012 Pottery work Cloud and Mountains was exhibited in the First China
Contemporary Pottery Exhibition.

2013 Sculpture Waterfall was selected in 2013 Almanac of Chinese Sculpture and collected by National Centre for the Performing Arts.

2013 Sculpture Deep Snow on the Butte was selected in the CCTV Sculpture Competition.

2013 Awarded first prize and special contribution award for his Ceramic sculpture works Snowy Mountains and Silent Mountain Peaks under the Sunset respectively in the Third Western China Pottery Exhibition.

2014 Ceramic work Silent Mountains was selected in the 2013 Almanac of Chinese Pottery and awarded the prize of annual outstanding work.

2016 Awarded special award in the Fourth Western China Pottery Exhibition for the Ceramic work Hidden Glen.

2016 Participated 'Breathe' - Chinese Traditional Sculpture Exhibition hold by Nanjing Museum for his Ceramic sculpture work Snowy Peaks in the Sun.

2016 Potterywork "Magnificent Rift Valley" was selected in the Second China Contemporary Pottery Exhibition.

2016 Ceramic sculpture work "Confrontation Scenery" was selected in 2016 Taiwan International Pottery Exhibition.