

Citizen of the world.

Charles Fillit is consultant specialized in ceramic territories development.

French, he was born in Tunisia, lived ten years in Iran, one year in Burkina Faso, one in Benin and five in Ivory Coast. This personal experience and the numerous travels done in different countries brought the richness that opened his mind to the necessary link between people.

After a first professional life in Communication sector in different countries he came to ceramic through one global project setting an interpretation center, an event, an exhibition gallery, for a traditional ceramic village in France and one other, and so on... until the creation in 2003 of the French Association of ceramic cities AFCC.

He is used to manage ceramic centers and produce itinerary exhibition.

He participated to the creation of the EGTC european grouping of territorial cooperation cities of ceramics : AEuCC in 2014

Until 2016 he was director of local policies for clay for Aubagne Agglomeration (south France) he managed Argilla International ceramic fair with 200 exhibitors artist coming from all over the world and 100 000 visitors.

He gave lectures mainly about « networking ceramic cities » theme.

Today he is French contact point for the EGTC ceramic cities.

He is still managing the French ceramic cities association.

As consultant he is developing different projects to permit ceramics cities to « be active part » of the 21 century and to be considered not only as a patrimony sector but as a « living sector » driven by artistic creation and enthusiastic artists.

Linking people as far as he can !...